

A diagram consisting of two concentric circles. The inner circle is drawn with a black line, and the outer circle is drawn with a red line. The space between the two circles represents the bleed area. In the center of the circles, there is text explaining the meaning of each line.

Red Line = Bleed
Black Line = Trim