IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING VIRTUALS:

This artwork is intended for concept purposes only. Since our products are custom made to order, changes to the design during the production process may be required due to technical manufacturing issues, mostly involving molds and dies. Please let your client know that a virtual is meant to convey as closely as we can what the finished product will look like, but it is not possible to achieve 100% accuracy of a product that has not yet been made. We strongly recommend requesting a pre-production sample to avoid client disappointment. We cannot accept rejected orders (rejected because the virtual did not match exactly the finished product) if a pre-production sample is not requested.
